HOW TO PLAY

You can play this game with up to 30 people. If your group is larger than that, consider dividing participants into smaller teams of equal size.

When you're ready to play, give each participant a 'Conversation Bingo' card and pen. Explain that the group has 30 minutes to mingle, introduce themselves, and use the conversation starters on the card. They must put the name of who they used the conversation starter with in the corresponding box.

The first person to fill in four boxes across or down yells "Conversation Bingo!" and the game is over.

You may like to get participants to share their experiences. You can ask them to describe how they feel after getting to know their workmates better through this exercise. You can emphasise that when we get to know each other we build trust and are able to have meaningful conversations and help others open up about life's ups and downs.
